St. Mary's Blankets—Ten Cases of Them

Wouldn't have much to talk about if these were simply the usual run of Country Blankets.

This, they are not, as an inspection and comparison will make plain the fact that the St. Mary's Blankets run larger throughout every size—none being skimmed; are made of finer grades of specially prepared wool, possess a freedom from grease and burrs not to be found in others; display a superiority of finish that augments the natural softness of the fleeces employed, and exhibit a diversity of styles unlooked for in Country Blankets, the delicately tinted borders of which are absolutely unfindable.

In short the—GENUINE ST. MARY'S BLANKETS Embodied the same of excellence—the essence of perfection—best fitting productions of the most modern and improved machinery; Blankets, the fame and sale of which extends even beyond the borders of the United States.

So when we were offered the exclusive sale in Wheeling of these best of bed coverings, we quickly availed ourselves of the opportunity, and now offer them to you, reader, at Prices, New and Revised Prices!

Which we feel confident will be no higher than those charged for inferior makes.

To Republican Voters.

The new election law requires each voter to vote in the precinct in which he resides. It is also necessary to be listed on the assessor's books as a voter in the precinct. The assessor for the city district will be at the office of the clerk of the Board of Commissioners from 10 to 12 o'clock a. m., and from 2 to 4 o'clock p. m. each day from October 1 to October 6, inclusive. Voters having moved from one district to another, or from one precinct to another, since June 1st, should call on him and be listed during the above period. The county committee will notify the voters who are not listed, as far as possible, and every voter so notified should see that his name is on the assessor's list; otherwise he will be put to inconvenience on election day, and will possibly lose his vote.
J. K. HALL,
Chairman Republican Committee.

Taxes are Coming In.

The city tax collections for the first four days of the new year were as follows: General fund, $8,054 47; tax levied, $1,189 57. So City Collector Shaffer reported to Receiver Kindelberger yesterday. This is considered a very good record for these times.

Admitted to Citizenship.

In the circuit court yesterday second papers of citizenship were issued to the following named aliens: Fred Williams, a native of England; William Husebier, of England; Thomas W. Rock, of England; George Buerckstineamer, of Bavaria; Ferdinand Keher, of Germany; Charles Geimer, of Germany.

Two Lunacy Cases.

Squire Gillespie yesterday examined Susan A. Moore, a woman seventy-eight years old, on suspicion of being insane. She was committed to await developments. It is believed that she is suffering from senile dementia.
Annie Hecker, of Bellaire, was also committed for a hearing to-day on a charge of lunacy.

Bicycle Races at Mountsville.

The picnic to be given to-day at the fair grounds at Mountsville by the glass workers, promises to be an immense affair. Contributions from the leading merchants in that city have been donated. The bicycle races will be a special feature. Prominent artists in that line will take part and a good crowd is expected.

A New Kind of Weather.

Yesterday the air was chilly and raw, and a cold, disagreeable rain fell most of the day. Only once did a ray of sun pierce the gloom. The rain will do good for the springs, wells and streams, but it caused a great deal of kicking among city pedestrians. The very dirty paved streets were converted into mud roads that are a discredit to the town.

The Coming Event.

The outing and ball of the Wheeling park barkeepers is to take place at the park on Thursday evening, October 11, and is in charge of a committee composed of Charles Kraft, Edward Vass, Harry Siebke, Edward Brandfass, H. Kreuter and P. Altmeyer. The programmed attractions are dancing, prize cake walk and prize bowling. The latter will of course draw big, the winner getting $19 and the second man $5. The cake walk will come off at 10:30 and will be the novel feature of the affair.

UNDERGROUND WIRES.

The Ordinance Committee Postpones Consideration.

MANY NEW POINTS ARE SUGGESTED

And it is Thought Best to Have the Solicitor on Hand—The Ordinance be Draw up was Entirely Inadequate—Several Other New Matters Are Talked About Briefly.

At the meeting of the council committee on ordinances last night, called mainly to consider the ordinance prepared by the solicitor, providing for putting all electric wires under ground in certain parts of town, the ordinance was read. It had been corrected since the INTELLIGENCER called attention to its peculiar wording. Still it did not seem to meet the views of the members. There were present representatives of the Western Union telegraph company, the telephone company, the Wheeling electric light company, the Postal telegraph company, besides Chief Healey, of the fire department. City Solicitor White was anxiously inquired for, but was not present, though Chairman Dobbins said he had asked him to attend. The members found numerous flaws in the ordinance, and only discussed it informally.

Mr. Robinson called attention to the absence of a necessary provision for terminal or radial poles, and also suggested that under the provisions talked of the companies might move their wires on Main and Market streets to Chapline or some other street, where they would be as objectionable as now placed.

Mr. Richards moved to limit the boundaries of the "underground district" more definitely. This brought up the question how the limits might be defined. The committee seemed to favor a district reaching from the river to Chapline street, though some wanted to include Chapline street. The ordinance was finally laid over.

The bicycle ordinance was again discussed, and laid over till the ordinances of other cities could be obtained. In regard to the proposed standing committee on legislation, no action was taken, as a special committee already exists, and this was considered a better plan. The street car tender ordinance was also discussed in an interesting way, but no final action taken.

The police committee was also called to meet, but failed to get a quorum.

"A Trip to Chinatown."

The newest, brightest and best of all the Hoyt productions, will be seen at the Opera House this evening, when "A Trip to Chinatown" will be presented. This brilliant production of Mr. Hoyt's holds the proud position of playing the largest number of consecutive performances in New York City, farcical, pantomime, dramatic or operatic yet done on the American stage. It ran over 600 nights at Hoyt's Theatre and comes here in the flood tide of its success. It is strictly a farce comedy. It has no pretension to plot. Its object is to amuse.
